

ENERGY COMMISSION

PUBLIC NOTICE NO. PN042032022

REGISTRATION FOR MAY/JUNE, 2022 ELECTRICAL WIRING EXAMINATIONS

The Energy Commission announces for the information of the general public, particularly prospective electricians that registration for the May/June, 2022 Electrical Wiring Certification Examinations has begun.

Regulation 7 of the Electrical Wiring Regulations, 2011 (L.I. 2008) states: "A person shall not undertake electrical wiring on premises unless that person is certified by ... the Energy Commission"

All persons interested or engaged in electrical wiring installation jobs in Ghana are encouraged to apply and sit for the examinations to get certified by the Commission.

Examination Fees are as follows:

Electricians

- Domestic Class: GHS 450.00
- Commercial Class: GHS 580.00
- Industrial Class: GHS 720.00

Inspectors

- Certified Electrical Wiring Professional-Inspector (CEWP-I): GHS 470.00
- Certified Electrical Wiring Inspector (CEWI): GHS 780.00

Mode of Payment

Applicants may pay Registration Fees at any GCB Bank as follows:

Account Name: Energy Commission – Electrical Wiring Regulation

Branch: High Street Branch

Account Number: 1011130039212

Applications can be done online at www.energycom.gov.gh or offline by downloading the Application Form from the aforementioned website, completing and submitting between 8:00 a.m. – 4.30 p.m. every weekday at any of the Energy Commission's offices nationwide as follows:

- 1. Head Office: Ghana Airways Avenue, Airport Residential Area, Accra (Behind Alliance Française and adjacent Narcotics Control Board); Telephone - 0302 813 756/7;
- 2. Takoradi Office: SSNIT Building, near the Takoradi Central Police Station. Telephone - 0312 035 401;
- 3. Kumasi Office: Kentinkrono; Telephone – 0322 065 260;
- 4. Tamale Office: Adjacent Fire Service Station, SSNIT Road; Telephone - 0372 001 572; OR
- 5. to any of our Regional Representatives as stated on the Application Form.

Please note the deadline for registration is Thursday, 14th April, 2022.